CELEBRATION THE BEST OF OSIBISA

AIM 1036CD

In 1970 a new style of music, known as Afro-rock, burst into international prominence with the launch in London of OSIBISA, formed by three Ghanaians - sax player Teddy Ossei, trumpeter Mac Tontoh and drummer Sol Amarfo.

OSIBISA were the original superstars of African Music, their breath taking concerts combined with the sheer virtuosity of their albums propelled them onto the world's concert stages. The band continues to this day playing and creating their unique style of African Music and few bands in the world can follow them on to a stage after one of their incredible performances.

The impact of OSIBISA's fusion of African Music and Rock was felt throughout a generation of African Musicians, particularly those who were teenagers during the time of The Beatles and Rolling Stones.

They were heralded as superstars of the music scene, definitely on a par with bands such as Santana, Sly and The Family Stone, and Cat Stevens.

The sections on CELEBRATION - THE BEST OF OSIBISA are their classic songs from the albums OSIBISA, WOYAYA, HEADS, WELCOME HOME, OJAH AWAKE, HAPPY CHILDREN, AFRICAN FLIGHT and MYSTIC ENERGY. In some cases on this recording live versions of songs have been included to show the explosive energy contained in Osibisa's world famous live performances.
