CHARLES MINGUS

thrice upon a theme

CHARLES MINGUS

thrice upon a theme

File under: Jazz

SELLING POINTS:

- Taken from three classic LPs in one set. "Jazzical Moods" & "The Jazz Experiments Of Charles Mingus" from 1954, and "The Mingus Three" from 1957.
- Features 1950s Jazz legends Thad Jones, John LaPorta, Hampton Hawes and Miles Davis producer Teo Macero.
- Rare transitional material from one of Jazz' greatest composers.
- Material originally released on obscure but legendary Period and Jubilee labels.
- Great companion piece to The Complete Columbia Recordings and Complete Atlantic Recordings boxed sets
- Sure to become an essential purchase for serious Mainstream Jazz collectors

OVERVIEW:

- One of Jazz Music's greatest musicians & composers
- Major innovator and architect of both the Be-Bop and Avant-Garde/Free Jazz movements
- In addition to his own recordings, he worked with Louis Armstrong, Lionel Hampton, Duke Ellington, Dizzy Gillespie, Charlie Parker, Miles Davis and Joanie Mitchell
- Recorded prolifically and has been a huge influence on all improvisational to this day
- Died of Lou Gerhig's disease in 1979
