ARTIST OVERVIEW

- Carlos Montoya 1903-1993
- The first Latin Music and guitar superstar of radio, television and recording
- Defined both the Flamenco style and gut string guitar playing of the 20th century
- Recorded prolifically from the 1920s through the 1960s
- First guitarist to tour the world and work with the great symphony orchestras
- His influence is still felt today in the work of Carlos Santana, John McLaughlin and the Latin Music boom

SELLING POINTS

- Definitive recordings from the 1950s, beautifully recorded
- The world's greatest Flamenco guitarist
- Solo recordings that show the guitarist in his essence, unencumbered by symphony orchestra
- Huge influence on Carlos Santana, John McLaughlin, Larry Coryell, etc
- The grandfather of the Latin Music explosion
- An essential purchase for all fans of acoustic guitar music
