The Troggs were one of the most successful mid-sixties British bands. Though they are best known for their multi-million selling 1966 hit "Wild Thing" (#1, 1966), they had numerous other hits including "With A Girl Like You" (#1UK, #29USA, #7AUS), "Anyway That You Want Me" (#8UK), the BBC banned song "I Can't Control Myself" (#2UK, #15AUS), "Give It To Me" (#12UK 1966, #6AUS) and "Love Is All Around" (#5UK, #7USA), which has been covered by numerous recording artists.

Fronted by the irrepressible non vocalist Reg Presley, The Troggs Rootsy, Power Pop Sound was adopted in the 70's by the Punk Movement, and in the UK they still remain popular in the 90's.

"Wild Thing" stands with songs such as "Gloria" and "Louie Louie" as one of the great garage band anthems and has been covered on record by countless artists including Jimi Hendrix and X.
