AIM 3002 CD

George Jones has been called "The Country Singer's Singer" and "The World's Greatest Country Performer."

Of all the Texans in Nashville, Jones has remained closest to his honky tonk roots and early southern country styles.

George Jones was born September 12 1931 in Saratoga, Texas, the eighth child in a poor family. He ran away from home at the age of 14, and by the age of 18, already had a wife, a child, and a broken marriage behind him.

After three years in the Marine Corps, Jones returned to Beaumont Texas, starting his musical career there with Starday Records in 1954.

His first No 1 country record was "Tender Years" in 1961. The rest as they say is history.
